

Liability issues related to agricultural biotechnology. (C07-kershen095527-Oral)

Authors:

- D.L.Kershen - University of Oklahoma College of Law

Abstract:

The talk will focus on legal liability issues arising from pollen flow from transgenic crops to non-transgenic crops. More specifically, the talk will address intellectual property rights and pollen flow; and trespass, nuisance, negligence and pollen flow. Various specific cases (e.g. Monsanto v. Schmeiser) will be discussed briefly. The talk will provide an overview of legal liability by highlighting main points for non-lawyers.
