

Biotechnology, Policy Response and Governance. (C07-ramaswami084306-Oral)

Authors:

- B.Ramaswani - Indian Statistical Institute

Abstract:

This presentation will consider the responses of LDCs, and India in particular, to biotechnology in terms of its impact on law, policy and institutions. The paper will also consider how these responses have shaped public and private interest in agricultural biotechnology. The last section of the paper will speculate on future evolution especially in the context of a global economy.
